

Air1 provides inspirational music in my community and city Pomona. It gives my friends and myself music entertainment that does not include sex, drugs, and greed. This station is the few that do not include these things, and removing it would just limit us and many others to our musical preference. This station gives the public another musical option than all the other stations which all play and constantly repeat the same songs about violence, sex and drugs.